The Berry Good Life - Community Services

Group Therapy, Workshops, & Training:

Whether you're a parent, educator, or part of a faith-based or clinical community, I offer group sessions that are practical, engaging, and grounded in real-world experience.

With over a decade of experience in behavioral support, I've led trainings for school staff, speech and occupational therapists, and church-based communities — all with the goal of making behavioral tools both accessible and effective in the environments that matter most.

Popular Topics:

Some of the topics I cover include:

1. Parent to the Future – Preparing kids for the world they're entering, not the one you grew up in.
2. Punish or Ignore Them? – Navigating the emotional and behavioral maze of adolescence.
3. Triple A Coverage – A practical approach to Autism, ADHD, and Anxiety.
4. Custom Topics – I'm happy to tailor group content to your needs — whether you're a parent group, school team, or community organization.

More topics and packaged trainings are in development — so if you have a specific group or community need, let's connect and find the right fit together.

Fees:

PRICE	SERVICE
